Don't worry a little bit more Decide to be the arrow that you are

An arrow has a back it has something that holds it back to stabilize it.

An arrow must be shot.

God is the shooter.

Dont force the shot.

But

and this is a big but

allow it

allow yourself to be shot by God

allow yourself to be shot at the target that God shoots you.

It is not your target
it is not your choice

but it is your choice to be the arrow to enjoy the flight

to go where you are gone to

The arrow has a centre

the centre connects connects the head the speed the race the intention

with the back

that doubts that waits that holds and that stabilizes

the centre is the connection that brings peace

it is not about choosing the winner

we go for the head

we go for the back

because we are one

you are one and it all works together even when you don't feel it, it does
